A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest becomes easier, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get a full pint of a family supply of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CO-OP MEETING

All members of Blair's Local Tobacco Growers are requested to meet at the school house Friday Oct. 5th at 6 p. m.

MACHINERY IN THE TOBACCO INDUSTRY

We are living in what may be very justly termed the machinery age. The industry and commerce is now very largely carried on by machinery. Everywhere labor-saving devices are used in order to expedite the movement of commodities, supplies and raw materials in factories. The general use of machinery is the result of the increased employment of capital in industries.

All branches of manufacturing have been revolutionized in recent years by the use of modern machinery and improved processes. The tobacco industry is no exception. The expansion following its widespread use has enabled manufacturers to employ more highly technically educated officials and men.

And these efforts have been assisted in standardizing and developing to the utmost every small detail of the innumerable processes in the vast field of tobacco treatment between the harvesting of the leaves and the placing of the finished products in the world's markets.

Every step taken to bring about increased production has been the result of technical study. And every advance thus made has led to further improvement in a cumulative manner in each unit of production.

And, of course, each improvement made in each tobacco process unit has resulted in corresponding improvements being made in many other allied industries.

American inventive genius has always been in the forefront in inventing and improved tobacco machinery. Away back in the early colonial days patents were secured for tobacco machinery.

The ingenious automatic cigarette-making machinery brought to a successful accomplishment in the early seventies was the result obtained by American inventors. The impetus given to cigarette making by their general adoption in our factories stimulated inventors to improve the machinery, methods and processes in all the tobacco industries and paved the way for the wonderful prosperity of our tobacco industries today.

Great, however, as the results have been, there cannot be any doubt that within another decade we shall witness even greater triumphs resulting from new machinery and processes. There can be no finality in the status of perfection of tobacco products.

The latest trend of inventors has been towards the perfection of machinery for the automatic manufacturing of cigars. Many of the country's brightest minds are now concentrated upon the problem of cigar making machines.

Great success is already attained in the mechanical branch of the industry. There are plants now in operation which are turning out excellent cigars, which are quite indistinguishable from the finest hand made cigars, where the tobacco is completely transformed from the leaf to the finished and boxed cigars entirely by machinery.

It seems now that in the immediate future the hand-made cigar will become as rare as the hand-made shoe. The foundation for the large-scale manufacture of cigars is soundly laid and the superstructure is well advanced.

MAJESTIC SHOW PROVES PLEASING

After playing to capacity houses for two nights, Pete's Syncopeated Steppes company last night presented a change in program to another large and enthusiastic audience. The show has proved a success during its engagement here this week. The management has striven for something new and something different. Of course there are the leading men, the comedians, the singers and dancers and the chorus as in any other tabloid show but the way they carry through the program is really worthwhile to see being a relief of the usual routine of tabs. There are a number of specialties which won warm applause and plenty of wholesome comedy is furnished by the two blackface performers. Another change will take place on Saturday, which winds up the show's week engagement.

RADICAL SENATOR GETS TOUCH OF SOVIET RUSSIA

(By The Associated Press.) CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The enthusiasm of United States Senator Robert M. La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, over conditions in Soviet Russia is reported to have been dampened considerably by his recent experience in traveling in the red republic.

A party of travelers who returned to Chicago today brought tidings of a change in the attitude of the Senator on a train going from Moscow to Petrograd. The plight of the American radical in the land of the arch radicals was described as pitiful. The senator, it was said, was in a sleeping compartment that was devoid of mattress, pillow and sheets and appeared to be fighting a losing battle at the time with cooties. He was boiling over with wrath at the treatment with which he was being treated. "If I were you are going home in favor of a king for this country" one of the Chicagoans told the senator as they parted.

Mr. La Follette vouchsafed no reply.

Party Disagreement Forced Cabinet Out

Ministry Was in Full Accord But Individual Parties Were at Odds—Chancellor Stresemann Spoken of as Civilian Dictator Under Martial Law—Poincare's Action Had Influence in Retirement.

(By The Associated Press.)
BERLIN, Oct. 4.—With the retirement of Chancellor Stresemann's coalition cabinet there is talk of the establishment of a civilian dictatorship supported by martial law. Dr. Stresemann himself is spoken of in some quarters as well fitted to take over such an office. In view of his experience in economics and finance. Meanwhile, he has been invited by President Ebert to form a new ministry.

The resignation of the cabinet came last night after the four socialist members had withdrawn following their rejection of a compromise proposed by the chancellor on the eight hour law. The bourgeoisie members voted to retire in a body and authorized Dr. Stresemann to appraise President Ebert of their decision. The chancellor returned from a visit to the executive soon after midnight and immediately called in the German editors to whom he reviewed the events leading up to the retirement of his ministry.

It is noteworthy that although the dentists say that a great majority of people either have pyorrhea (Riggs disease) or pyorrheal tendencies. The beginning is sore, receding or bleeding gums, sensitive or loose teeth, pus pockets and bad odors. Pyorrhea not only affects the gums and teeth, but also your general health, as the pus, which is very poisonous, is absorbed into the system, causing serious stomach troubles, the results of which are sometimes fatal.

You can now treat pyorrhea at home and get relief with formula known as Creosene, the new discovery, that, through penetration, carries a powerful but harmless germicidal, which destroys (the greatest germ-destroying tissue-preserving agency known and used by dentists for years) is the base, right to the roots of the teeth, killing the pyorrheal germs, making the gums healthy, tightening up and preserving the teeth, healing pus pockets, relieving pain and destroying odors caused by decayed or abscessed teeth.

Creosene is pleasant to use, and should be used by every one who wears a plate, as it keeps the gum firm and healthy and free from pain. $1.00 at your druggist and your money back if it fails. Creosene Co., Atlanta, Ga.—adv.

Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!
New Discovery Limbers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases.

Yes, it's true—the world progresses. All you need to do nowadays to limber up that stiff, rusty knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle working substance from a tube. Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy. Then read the evening newspapers and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to leap when you were a young fellow.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint Ease: They call this wonder working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint, or reduce the swelling. Joint Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale is immense.

All druggists have a big supply of it and druggists everywhere report a big demand.—adv.

cabinet members themselves were in full accord on all issues, this concurrence of opinion was lacking in the individual parties whom the ministers represented.

"The views of the people at large" said the chancellor, "no longer coincide with those of the parties and it was not for the prevailing conditions of unrest, the best solution of the whole problem would be new Reichstag elections."

The chancellor proposed that he have a smaller cabinet as he is no longer obliged to consider the partisan wishes of each party as was the case in the retiring ministry. This statement, a pointed indication that Herr Stresemann wishes to construct a cabinet that will represent a closely co-ordinated ministry equipped with extraordinary powers.

While President Ebert and Chancellor Stresemann would have preferred an avoidance of preliminary complications in view of the present internal and foreign situations, they are believed to view the outcome with satisfaction in that it brought an end to the traditional system of compromises and political bartering with which a dozen or more previous crises have been patched up.

Chancellor Stresemann's statements to the press point to the conclusion that he purposes constructing a cabinet comprising a limited number of ministers and with semi-dictatorial or carte blanche authority to put the drastic relief measures into effect without awaiting preliminary sanction.

Although the coalition government has found it impossible to effect reforms acceptable to all four parties represented, the belief is prevalent that the ministry might have been held together had Premier Poincare been responsive to the termination of passive resistance.

PHILIPPINE ELECTION WAS BITTER CAMPAIGN

(By The Associated Press.)
MANILA, Oct. 4.—Tuesday's election in the Philippines marked the close of the most bitter campaign since the United States assumed administration of the insular government.

Nominally the election was held primarily for filling the vacancy in the insular senate created by the election of Pedro Guevara as resident commissioner at Washington. As a matter of fact the whole question of the attitude of the voters toward independence and the American administration was involved.

Ramon Fernandez, successful candidate for Guevara's place, formerly was mayor of Manila. He resigned on July 17, last, along with several native government officials as a result of a controversy with Governor General Wood.

Differences between Wood and native officials and political leaders which have increased in number and bitterness since efforts of Filipino leaders to obtain independence for the island, failed, resulted in a coalition of the Nacionalista and Collectivist parties for the purpose and duration of the campaign just closed.

Manuel Quezon, senate leader and Manuel Roxas, speaker of the house, both of whom resigned last July out have since continued to function and Sergio Osmena, who preceded Roxas as speaker of the house, were the outstanding figures in the anti-Wood and anti-American campaign. "Queen of the Collectivists and Osmena, head of Nacionalista, United their parties and put Fernandez forward as the coalition candidate."

Quezon and Osmena visited the United States in June 1922, as joint chairmen of the Philippine independence mission, and put their request for independence before President Harding.

The Democratic party, under the leadership of Governor Montinola of Iloilo province, was for Wood and the American administration. Meanwhile Governor General Wood has kept out of the politics, maintaining his only duty was to uphold the authority of the United States and guarantee a fair and orderly election.

prison authorities refused to permit his fellow guards to risk their lives in an attempt to move the wounded man to safety. Finally A. C. Warner, a life term convict from Paducah went to Mattingly, gave him water and later carried him to a shed. From the shed with the aid of other prisoners, Warner moved the wounded guard to the prison hospital.

Mattingly was reported to have objected at first to proposals by Warner that the latter carry him away, fearing that the cornered convicts would shoot him to death in the prisoner's arms. When he accepted Warner's help his fears were proven groundless.

First plans today for driving the desperadoes from their stronghold without further loss of life included an incognito scheme to use the pipes of the steam heating plant for forcing tear gas and red pepper into the room where the men are hidden.

During the fustilude yesterday, a stray bullet cut one of the pipes. Clouds of steam in the room gave the prison authorities the first intimation of that fact. Today they began preparations to lead one of the mine leading to the room with gas and pepper and force it into the room with steam.

Ed V. Mattingly, western Kentucky penitentiary guard here who was wounded by Monte Walters and his companions in their momentary frenzied dash for liberty from the prison yesterday, died of his wounds in the prison hospital early today. Mattingly lay in the lee of the dining hall all day yesterday crying for water after he had been shot down but fellow guards on armed civilians were unable to give him succor as it would have taken them into the path of the hardheaded convict's bullets. He later was carried to safety by a convict trusty.

The gas and pepper idea, however, was abandoned as impracticable after a survey of the situation. Instead, plans were made to train machine guns on the building, maintain a steady fire and at an opportune moment rush the structure with the guards and state soldiers who number more than 100.

LAMAR DEPORTED FROM MEXICO; WANTED IN N. Y.
(By Chicago Tribune Service.)
MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2.—David Lamar was deported yesterday at the request of agents of the United States Department of Justice. Mr. Lamar was wanted in New York, where he was convicted some time ago on illegal transactions in Wall street. The offense is not an extraditable one, so President Obregon ordered him deported under article 33 of the constitution. Mr. Lamar was known in Mexico under the name of Lehman. He is now on his way to the border in charge of R. L. Baca and Herman Strauss, Department of Justice agents.

Saloons Defy Orders of Governor Pinchot

To Investigate Webb Death Fully After Physician's Report

and first indicated that she died under mysterious circumstances and Mrs. Margaret P. Johnston, wife of a former New York judge, who declared that her childhood friends had been the victim of slow poisoning.

Dr. O. A. Goettl, toxicologist, who examined Mrs. Webb's vital organs, reported last yesterday that certain quantities of poison were found in the body. The grand jury put the case over until next Monday when the investigation will begin in earnest.

Relations of the dead woman had started a contest over the three wills which disposed of her estate, estimated to be worth between two and three million dollars. The first will made before her marriage to Charles Webb, on November 4, 1922, left her estate to relatives and to various institutions. The second, executed during her last illness and composed of only ten lines, left her entire estate to her husband.

The third and last will on which the contest will be based was made just before Mrs. Webb's death and left unsigned by her due to her weakened condition. This last document, which was refused by the surrogate's office on the ground that an unsigned will could not be accepted even as evidence, left the greater part of the estate to relatives and also established a fund to care for a monument to the dead woman which was to be erected in New York.

For the surrogate, counsel for the contestants, obtained from Surrogate O'Brien an order to show cause why a temporary administrator should not be appointed to conserve the assets of the estate pending the outcome of the contest. Objections to the will are to be filed either today or tomorrow, Mr. Cohan stated.

A late development in the case was the statement by Dr. Meyer that when he informed Mr. Webb that his wife's death was imminent, the latter replied: "We have been together for ten years. One day lost does not matter."

"Later Mr. Webb did visit the sick-room," the doctor said, "but he manifested no interest and left it in about ten minutes. He never saw his wife alive again."

GERMANY'S COMEBACK AT SEA ALARMS HER COMPETITORS
COPENHAGEN, Oct. 3.—German shipping is showing remarkable recuperative powers, so much so that other maritime states are today concerned lest this "dreadnaught competitor" will regain her old position.

The quotation is from the Scandinavian Shipping Gazette, which publishes an article on the subject. In 1920 Germany had 420,000 gross tons of steamers and motorships, and in 1922 a total of 2,510,000 tons. "Bitter complaints are made against the resumption of the German competition in practically all waters, but perhaps principally in South American seas," the Gazette says in conclusion.

Executive Personally Observes Open Defiance of 'His Padlock' Threat—Few Heed at All, While Others Prepare for Legal Battle Characterizing the Action as "Without Sanction of the Law."

(By The Associated Press.)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 4.—Governor Pinchot early today personally observed the open defiance by Philadelphia saloons of his order to cease business under threat of being dealt with according to the "padlock section" of the prohibition law.

On Tuesday the governor and the federal department of justice issued a joint order notifying the 1,300 or more local saloons and cafes to close and discontinue their places within 48 hours. A large force of government agents and state police who served the notices on the proprietors, completed their work late last night.

Shortly thereafter Governor Pinchot made the rounds to see for himself whether the order was being obeyed. He visited half a dozen of more places and found them all doing a flourishing business. The governor made no attempt to make a purchase.

Governor Pinchot strolled leisurely into the saloons and cabarets, looked around, observed the crowds, and as leisurely strolled out. He made no comment. He said probably he would give out a statement later in the day.

Apparently but few of the saloon men have heeded the closing order. They declared they had been advised by Francis J. Manely, chief counsel for the Retail Liquor Dealers' Protective Association, to continue business as usual, but to obey the law insofar as it pertained to the sale of liquors of illegal alcoholic content.

Mr. Manely characterized the "dry" campaign as "meaningless" and "without sanction of the law." He said there was nothing in the law to prohibit a man from maintaining a saloon so long as he conforms to that part of the law regulating the sale of intoxicating beverages. Many of the proprietors are preparing for a legal battle.

"I am more than glad to give Tanlac a good name, it's the best medicine I ever took," declared Mrs. Eliza Braxton 14 Prospect St., Clifton Forge, Va.

"I had a severe attack of flu which left me with no appetite, weak, nervous and could hardly get any sleep. I suffered terribly from indigestion, and pains around my heart that frightened me. I had nervous sick headaches continually and at times I was nearly blind with dizzy spells and couldn't stand up. I couldn't eat a thing except the lightest foods. "My son bought some Tanlac and in a short time after I started taking it I began to improve rapidly and now I am in perfect health. I certainly can recommend Tanlac for anyone suffering as I was."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 27 million bottles sold.

Memorial Held For Mrs. Stuart

BRISTOL, Va., Tenn., Oct. 3.—Addresses of welcome by Mayor George M. Warren, of Bristol, Virginia, and Mayor L. H. Gammon, of Bristol, Tennessee, on behalf of the two cities of Bristol, and addresses by Major A. D. Reynolds, and Colonel James M. Barker, both Confederate veterans, were the chief features of the first session of the Virginia U. D. C. State Convention which convened at the First Baptist Church this morning with approximately 125 delegates from all parts of the state in attendance. Mrs. James A. Scott, state president, responded to the welcome addresses on behalf of the organization.

Three sessions were held, one in the morning, afternoon and evening. A beautiful memorial service for the deceased members was held in the morning of which special interest attended those for Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, wife of the great Virginia general, and Mrs. C. R. Tate, former state president and custodian of the Lee mausoleum at the time of her death.

In the afternoon reports by the state president and all the district chairmen were made which showed that much had been accomplished by the organization during the past year. No new business came up on the first day but it is expected that the matter of registering the chapters in the state will be discussed tomorrow. The convention will be in session all day Thursday.

Delegates arrived on all Virginia trains today and tomorrow. The session will probably be attended by 150 members.

One Window Curtain Is Missing

PARIS, Oct. 4.—This may offer suggestion as to what to do with the hood parts of old lace curtains. It is the latest confection from Paris in the way of an evening headpiece.

On a white satin turban is draped a lace which also drapes the side of the hat and hangs over the shoulders.

This is the sort of style which French modistes say would have to be adapted for the American woman.

Good Morning Judge!
Mr. and Mrs. T. Willford were acquitted of a charge of operating an all-governed house by Mayor Harry Wooding this morning after an hour's session behind closed doors, at which even newspaper men were excluded at the request of the defendants.

The warrant had been sworn to by George J. Belch, who lives near the Willford home on Walker street in North Danville, and a large number of other residents of the community were present as witnesses. Most of them were women. While some of the evidence was damaging, both Mr. and Mrs. Willford denied that their place was conducted in an improper way, giving various explanations for the visits of various men to their home.

After the hearing, Mrs. Willford fainted while walking along Union street towards Main. On seeing his wife reel backward her husband caught her before she struck the pavement. He called Officer F. C. Towell and Mrs. Willford was taken into a nearby store, where she was soon revived.

Mrs. Mike Moore, one of the main witnesses for the prosecution, testified at length at the hearing of finding her husband at the Willford home after Willford had denied vigorously that he was there. Mrs. Moore stated that her husband left home on the night in question and that she soon got a call that he was in the Willford home. She says she immediately went there and Willford responded to her knocks on the door.

She said she asked for her husband and Willford told her he had gone. Mrs. Willford, she says, told her Moore had been there numbers of times. The witness did not go with her husband any more and she promised that she would not. Mrs. Moore continued, saying that she left the house then but a lady told her later that her husband was there yet despite the fact that she had been told to the contrary. A young girl told her the same thing, she said, and she went back to the house. Willford again came to the door. He again denied that Moore was there. Mrs. Moore stated that she asked normal questions to search. She said while she was looking around, a door to the middle room slammed together. She stated that she asked if she could go in that particular room. She opened the door, she said, and there was her husband. Mrs. Moore said that she then complained to police officers about her husband's unfaithfulness to her and told about his many visits to the place. She said her husband had been drinking the time she found him there.

Mrs. George Huff testified that she had seen Moore go to the place and stay some hours. She stated that she saw Moore go there Sunday and that she had seen him go there on numerous occasions. The witness stated that the visitors would go there in the absence of Willford.

George Huff also told of seeing Moore go in and out of the house. He also stated that they stayed some time and he was always when the husband was away.

Various other witnesses, both men and women, testified to the same effect.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Willford claimed that the visitors that neighbors had seen come to their house, were only friends of the family. They denied the charges against them, contending that their house was not conducted in a disorderly manner.

Mrs. Willford called the Breck of the morning and denied that Officer M. Moore came to her house Sunday and had taken Moore away at the request of Mrs. Moore as reported yesterday. Officer M. Moore was later seen and denied that he had been a mistake about the report about him going to the house, although he said the situation had been called to the attention of the police.

It has been learned that it was reported that Moore had been taken away Sunday night to the police station of a woman. It was also reported that Mrs. Moore who was hysterically screaming in finding her husband at the place.

W. G. Moore drew a fine of $41 and costs for operating an automobile while under the influence of whisky. He was also assessed $10 and costs for driving the car without the proper license.

A fine of $15 and costs was imposed on Ellis Richmond for "beating."

PRIZE SHORTHORN HERD TO BE FEATURE AT DANVILLE FAIR

Secretary H. B. Watkins, of the Danville Fair Association, has returned from the Richmond State Fair where he was successful in signing for an exhibit at the Danville Fair of H. W. McLaughlin's prize herd of shorthorn cattle which have received a good deal of attention at numerous fairs in surrounding States. There are fourteen animals in the exhibit, all pure-bred beasts. The prize-winning black bull is one of the best ever shown in this section. A magnificent specimen weighs thousand pounds.

Mr. Watkins was engaged this morning with the representative of the organization which will supply the free attractions and the side shows which will cover the midway. In enumerating these this morning, Mr. Watkins emphasized the reappearance of the Duttons whose riding act last year was generally commended as clever and picturesque. The troupe is larger this year and six different acts will be given by these performers. Another interesting free attraction promised to Fair patrons next week will be a troupe of Japanese acrobats and a wire-walking act. The comical acts will include the well-known mule and clown and the giant stork which promise to be appreciated more especially by the children. These are not all of the free acts which will be given. Mr. Watkins said, adding that further announcement on this subject would be made later.

The free attractions, the various midway concessions and the numerous riding devices will arrive on Sunday but no effort will be made to unload them until after midnight Sunday, in order not to clash with the State Sabbath observance law.

Mr. Watkins announced today that he hoped that prospective exhibitors would begin sending in their products without delay in order that an eleventh hour rush will not overtax the Fair staff. The woman's building and domestic arts exhibits as well as some of the agricultural exhibits can be sent in to the Chamber of Commerce rooms without further delay.

LETTER FROM MRS. JOSEPH GRAVES HAMILTON TO MRS. JOHN ALDEN PRESCOTT

MY DEAR DAUGHTER:
I read in the paper this morning of the disappearance of a man by the name of Harry Ellington. Is he the husband of that pretty little friend of yours? I am quite sure he must be, for the papers say he was a broken and speak of his wife as having the name of Ruth.

Oh, I am so sorry for her, but I never did like him. I thought he was a scoundrel from the first time I saw him. I never could see just what Jack found in him that made him so friendly with him. I do hope that Jack wasn't concerned in any of his dealings.

Your father expressed the same thing tonight. It seems that he, too, had warned Jack against Ellington, who has not had a very good name among stock brokers for some time. Your father said that young men are very apt to want to make money quickly and that Ellington seemed quite a plausible fellow, consequently he might have inveigled Jack into some of his schemes. He dismissed the subject, however, by saying that he was sure Jack had too much common sense. I told him that Jack had too much love for you to risk the money that was needed for you and little Jack in some stock gambling operation.

If you can do it without hurting her any more than she is already hurt will you please convey my greatest sympathy to Ruth Ellington. She did not look happy when I was there, and although she probably is better off now that he is gone, yet it always injures woman's pride quite as much as it hurts her love when the world knows that some other woman means more to her husband than she herself.

There, I think I have said enough about this deplorable case. How is dear little Jack? Leslie, you will forgive me when I say that I do not think I could be grandmother to any sweeter baby if you had really borne him yourself, and besides you know I feel quite like a beneficent old nurse because you know I brought him to you.

I am glad you are feeling so well, but aren't you taxing your strength too much by letting your cook go? Of course when I was your age, I was doing my own work, with two babies on my hands, and no nurse for either of them. But life today has grown so complex, my dear. There are so many more outside calls on a young married woman than there were in my time. However, you know best and I am sure that old Nanny is a perfect treasure to you. What do you hear from Jack's mother? Is she well? I had a long letter from Alice today. Am sending it to you in this letter.

Your loving, MOTHER.

Missing Negress Is Sought Here
Robert Edmondson, a middle-aged colored man from Crystal Hill, Halifax county, has been here several days trying to locate his missing wife, who he says disappeared from their home about three weeks ago. Edmondson expressed the belief this morning that her mind was unbalanced—the result of worry over her ill son—and that should she come to her mind again, she would return home. A letter their daughter received several days ago, postmarked Danville from the missing woman, brought Edmondson to Danville. The negro this morning called on the police department to assist him in finding the woman.

Edmondson stated that morning that his wife, Mary, left home without any explanation whatever about three weeks ago. He had no inkling of where she had gone and although searching the section day after day could not locate her. They live about 45 miles from here near Scottsburg, he said. The other day he stated their daughter, Sarah, received a letter from her mother and it was postmarked "Danville." She only stated that she was very ill but gave no address.

Are you afraid to face the scales?

Do you walk around the town with a pocket full of pennies, fascinated by the thought that some scale may register your weight a few pounds lighter?

Many women do—yet it's quite unnecessary if one will only give up a few fattening foods, and substitute tasty, nourishing dishes that do not add weight.

Make these light, delicious muffins and biscuits yourself, so that they will give the minimum of fuel value. Substitute them for wheat bread or richer bread-stuffs, and they will go a long way toward helping you diet easily.

NOTE: Instead of using rich, whole butter, try diluting a pound of butter with a pint of evaporated milk. Beat well, together, and you will find it palatable, yet not fattening.

(By The Associated Press.)
ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., Oct. 3.—"In this hour when mysterious and indefinable forces combine to work revolutions in almost every land, we find increased justification for pride that we are citizens of the United States," declared Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Democrat of Arkansas, addressing the eighth annual Rocky Mount fair today. "In spite of frequent blunders by public officers and occasional unreasoning agitation which proposes no remedy, ours is the safest and freest country in all the world," he added.

Senator Robinson, who recently has returned from Europe, contrasted conditions prevalent in the United States with those he found in European countries, and asserted that Americans have much for which to be thankful. He stated, however, that "great issues challenge the patriotic and intelligent deliberations of our citizens—prominent among these must be included the nation-wide discontent among farmers, due in large part to the disproportion in the profits they receive and that derived from other necessary phases of activity. The complaint of the farmers," said the senator, "finds justification in the opinion of economists and experts, who, while concurring in the facts, find themselves unable to agree upon adequate remedies."

Berlin Situation
Approaches Crisis

BERLIN, Oct. 3.—Berlin's military garrison was heavily reinforced tonight.

Minister of Economics Raumer has resigned. The resignation of the whole cabinet is being considered at a special meeting in Wilhelmstrasse tonight.

An absolute political and military dictatorship of Chancellor Stresemann and General von Seeckt stands on the threshold. Events are rapidly approaching the long awaited crisis, which Chancellor Stresemann foresaw when he took office. Tonight Chancellor Stresemann is preparing to hand in the cabinet's resignation and at the same time dissolve the Reichstag.

In the Reichstag lobby tonight the leaders of several antagonistic factions declared the cabinet crisis was brought about by Chancellor Stresemann's own party and the conflict between the nationalist, people's and socialist parties determined Chancellor Stresemann to attempt a rule by himself. Within a short time it is expected a triumvirate like King Victor Emmanuel, Premier Mussolini and General Diaz, will result here with President Ebert, Chancellor Stresemann and General von Seeckt.

The Tribune today is able to tell how the fortress at Kustrin was saved for the nation. When Major Hertz, commanding one wing of the Monarchists, captured the fortress by surprise, his troops stormed into Colonel Cudovius' headquarters. Major Hertz later met Col Cudovius and began taunting him about the ease of the capture.

Meanwhile, the Colonel's stenographer, a 18 year old girl, living within the fortress, came to work and overheard Major Hertz. She found the way out barred by the Monarchists and jumped from a second story window and ran to a telephone and called two companies of pioneer troops, who made a counter attack, and captured Major Hertz, breaking the Monarchist victory.

Colonel Cudovius today asked the garrison to reward the stenographer with several billion marks.

Early this morning the loyal troops succeeded in disarming the 400 remaining in the arsenal. However, 1,200 persons were implicated, including many in regular army uniforms and many civilian clad, most of whom aided in the uprising, but remained outside of the arsenal and succeeded in disappearing. Many put on civilian clothes.

Twelve German garrison fortifications are being undermined by Black Reichswehr who may strike at any time unless the government acts decisively. Socialist members of the Reichstag charged at a secret sitting this evening. The Socialists sent word to the government to act immediately.

Throughout the session the term "Stinnes soldiers" was used by the socialists for yesterday's rebels. It was known that an attempt was made yesterday to capture the Spandau fortress.

TRUST BLOCKS
OFF SHIPMENTS

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)

TOKIO, Oct. 3.—Japan's silk trust, represented by a group of sixty brokers in Yokohama, is blocking shipments, causing an economic loss of $30,000,000 monthly, while America's silk trust, while American silk mills at Waterson and Passaic will soon be compelled to close. As a result the public will be forced to turn to other textiles for wear.

This argument was put up strongly by the premier and the minister of agriculture today by Daniel X. Douly, representing the Silk Association of America, who urged the government to exert pressure upon the Tokyo Trust to avert a calamity affecting both countries.

"The average shipments to America from September to March total 10,000 bales monthly and are worth $30,000,000," Mr. Douly told the Tribune. "Last year's exports were valued at $400,000,000, with the best year $450,000,000. Now owing to the stubbornness of the Tokyo trust in refusing to permit shipments from other ports while utterly unable to use Yokohama, both countries face an irretrievable loss."

OIL INDUSTRY IS NOW ON UPWARD CLIMB

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—The oil industry has passed the crisis and now is on the upward climb, Sheldon Clark, vice president of the Sinclair Refining Company declared in addressing the American Oil Men's Association today.

The peak of production of oil occurred in July and August and reports indicate a big fall off in the daily production of crude oil through the United States and Mexico," he declared.

A blacker picture was painted by W. H. Gray of Tulsa, Oklahoma, president of the National Independent Producers Association who declared "the small oil producers throughout the country is in just as great distress today as is the farmer or the cattleman."

G. O. P. DIVIDED ON ISSUE OF AN EXTRA SESSION

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—Republican leaders are reported to be divided on the issue of an extra session of Congress to consider legislation for relief of agriculture. Up to the present time a majority of the party leaders have opposed any extra session and President Coolidge, in his discussions of the subject, has said he has not seen any necessity for calling Congress before December.

Today, however, in Republican headquarters there were several influential party leaders who were inclined to the view that it would be wise to call Congress early in November for the purpose of considering the agricultural situation with a view to disposing of at least a part of the subject before the regular session begins.

President Coolidge and some of his advisers were said to be leaning favorably to the suggestion that the war finance board be recreated to help the farmer. Whether the president would deem this suggestion important enough to have Congress consider the war finance board, however, has not been ascertained. Some of his advisers are urging him to call a November session believing it would have good political effect in agricultural sections.

The president today discussed agricultural relief with representatives of different farm organizations. The executive committee of the national grange participated in one conference with the president while other aspects of the agricultural problem were presented earlier in the day by a representative of the American Cotton Association.

The spokesman for the National Grange discussed the problems of the wheat farmer. It was understood that they opposed readjustment schemes such as price fixing proposals.

Mr. Thompson declared that the American Cotton Association is not asking any government aid for the cotton farmer. He said there is a strong feeling in the South that there must be more self help and a slowing down of demands for various relief measures from the government.

Artificial relief for the farmer, he said, piles up burdens which must finally be carried by him in cumulative form. He said the opening of foreign markets is one of the most important things to be brought about.

Immigration questions were touched upon by Mr. Thompson who told the president that there is a labor shortage on the farms as well as in industry and that unless immigration laws are relaxed somewhat there will be a serious curtailment of agricultural and industrial production.

LAMAR WALL STREET WOLF,
DELAYS RETURN

(By Chicago Tribune Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—David Lamar, the "wolf of Wall street" who jumped a $25,000 bond in New York when under conviction for illegal transactions in Wall street, and who was ordered deported from Mexico by President Obregon, has succeeded in delaying his return to the United States pending court action at Torreon.

Lamar was being escorted to the Mexican border where he was to have been turned over to Department of Justice agents when he applied for a stay against the deportation order at Torreon. Pending a hearing Lamar is in custody of Mexican government officials and Department of Justice agents are keeping their eyes on him.

Lamar was located in Mexico City by representatives of the Department of Justice sent there by William J. Burns, chief of the Bureau of Investigation. He was living in the Mexican capital under the name of Lehman. When the American agents established his identity a request for Lamar's deportation from the department of justice was promptly acted upon by President Obregon.

"I think that the writ at Torreon," said Chief Rogers tonight, "will be dissolved in a few days and the Lamar will not succeed in evading deportation."

SAMUEL RANDALL'S DAUGHTER
TO RUN FOR GOSHEN OFFICE

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., Oct. 3.—The Democrats of Goschen have nominated for the office of Overseer of the Poor Mrs. Susan Randall Bacon daughter of the late Samuel J. Randall, for three terms Speaker of the House of Representatives and at one time mentioned as a presidential possibility.

Mrs. Bacon, who is the widow of Henry Bacon, for years a member of Congress, if elected will be the first woman to serve as Overseer of the Poor in Goschen.

The Republican nominee is Robert W. Bruce, chief of police of the village.

Movement To Aid
Farmers Started
By The President

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—President Coolidge today set in motion a plan designed to ameliorate agricultural depression. He designated Managing Director Meyers and Director Mondell, of the war finance corporation, to proceed into the northwest immediately and assist in the formation of co-operative marketing associations, promotion of which the president believes will result in direct benefit. Meanwhile the president and cabinet are seeking to devise additional remedies.

Directors of the finance corporation began at once the formulation of a program and itinerary for their tour. It was stated that Mr. Meyer and Mr. Mondell, together with a representative of the department of agriculture experienced in co-operative association work would visit the Dakotas, Minnesota, Montana and probably Nebraska and other wheat growing districts.

The directors, familiar with the co-operative methods in use among the tobacco, rice and cotton growers of the South and fruit growers of California, will carry detailed plans for organization into every section visited. They also will give assurance to the farmers who enlist in the co-operative movement that ample government funds will be available through both the war finance corporation agencies and the intermediate credit banks created by the last Congress. Orderly marketing and the ways of financing will be the foundation of the efforts to which the corporation directors will address themselves.

Mr. Meyer feels that the co-operative movement is the solution for the agricultural problem and frequently has urged organization of the producers. He and his assistants contemplate the formation of as many local organizations as possible. They will talk against speculative holding and seek to show benefits to be derived from disposing of grain holdings at the proper times.

After the White House announcement of the plan to send the delegation into the northwest, Senator Frazier, Republican of North Dakota, issued a statement declaring the time had come for an "official" reckoning with the farmers' problems. He asserted that there had been too much sympathy and too little actual help given agricultural and again argued the passage of remedial legislation. His statement contained references to the Norris-Sinclair bill of two years ago and several other measures which he said would have proved beneficial if had they been enacted.

EFFORT MADE TO BURGLARIZE
CAGE OF SNAKES

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Bronx Park Zoo officials are mystified over an attempt early today to burglarize the cobra cage.

Doctor William P. Hornaday, director of the Zoo termed the attempt Bronx Park's luckiest failure. The director explained that four deadly cobras on which the visitor apparently had designs, two common hooded and two spectacle cobras, were healthy specimens of the dread Indian variety which annually took a death toll of probably 18,000 lives in the land of sandalwood and temple bells. He was curious as to why the snake house prowler slighted the choice assortment of rattlesnakes, moccasins, pythons, boa constrictors and anacondas abounding on every side.

When headkeeper John T. Toomey opened up this morning he found in the rear of the cage of the cobras various tools, sawdust, splinters, burnt match ends and the like. This led to discovery that a hole had been bored in the tin lined wooden door in the brick wall which attracted the prowler. Fortunately, cheesecloth had been stuffed into the hole, otherwise, Dr. Hornaday was confident that a snake chase might even now be in progress from one end of Manhattan to the other.

Dr. Hornaday confessed himself as in the dark why the man should give up before playing his string out why he should ever have started. He said the man was clearly both an expert and one familiar with the arrangement of the reptile house. He must have known that the snakes were worthy only about $10 a piece and that the Philadelphia Zoo was the only other market in this country where he could have disposed of them.

Why Fear Child-birth

EXPECTANT mothers do not undergo useless suffering any longer, and baby's birth can be made gloriously easier.

Mrs. Wm. Flack, 115 N. 12th St., Leavenworth, Kansas, says: "Mother's Friend" is the best help in the world for an expectant mother. I am the mother of three children and have found "Mother's Friend" fine.

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied about the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates wonderfully, and in this way allows the muscles and ligaments to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and at child-birth.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait, start today, and meanwhile write to Bradford Rectenbach Co., B.A.R., Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet containing valuable information every expectant mother should have.

"Mother's Friend" contains no narcotics or harmful drugs. It is safe. There is no substitute. Avoid useless greases and plain oils. Start using "Mother's Friend" now—the sooner the better. "Mother's Friend" is sold at all good drug stores—everywhere.

Rich Widow Was Bait For Lamar

(By The Associated Press.)

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 2.—Trapped by a beautiful widow whose heart he believed he had captured, David Lamar, known as the "Wolf of Wall Street," fell into the hands of American detectives here who had been pursuing him relentlessly for some time in an endeavor to take him back to the United States, there to work out a sentence imposed on him in connection with a stock market transaction.

After he had been taken into custody Lamar was ordered expelled from the country as a pernicious foreigner, but when he reached Toronto on the way to El Paso, he secured a writ of amparo and thereby escaped immediate deliverance into the hands of the United States authorities at the border.

The writ of amparo is an appeal against the expulsion order, and a hearing on it has been set for October 17.

According to the Mexican secret service, Lamar entered Mexico from the State of New Mexico, speaking English and French perfectly, and quickly acquiring Spanish, Lamar, or Ernest Lamar Lehman as he called himself, quickly became famous in Mexican and foreign circles. He spent money lavishly.

The suspicions of local bankers were aroused over deposits made by Lamar and enormous financial deals he attempted to promote, and inquiries were made of New York banks to his standing.

When these inquiries were answered both the Mexican and American authorities were advised.

Meanwhile, a detective from New Mexico, cooperating with a New York detective and Mexican secret service operatives, got on Lamar's trail. Needing a photograph of Lamar to establish his identity, the police secured the co-operation of a handsome widow, a member of the American colony, who is said to have pretended to fall in love with the fugitive and to have agreed to elope with him.

She obtained the photograph with her, and the presentation of evidence of Lamar's record in the United States, together with the photograph, brought forth a presidential order for his expulsion under article 33 of the constitution.

AVIATOR SUED FOR SAVING LIFE IN GARBAGE CAN SMASHUP

ED BALLOUGH

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 4.—Ed Ballough saved his life and smashed a garbage can when his plane lit upside down in a 2000-foot drop through the atmosphere onto somebody else's back yard.

Now he's being sued for living, in a test case which will decide the aerial rights of stranded aviators who find it necessary to trespass the free ozone above land claimed by another.

Ballough's steering handle dropped out from under him as he was making one of the riskiest loops on record so far above terra firma, that Robert Johnson's house and garbage can below him weren't even on the landscape.

Then all at once it happened and Ed found himself astride the obstreperous critters' rear end, making frantic efforts to guide it safely down.

When he unlocked himself from the daze which seized him following the first terrific crash and still feeling "kind of goofy," some one came up behind him and said: "See here, young fellow, who's going to pay for this garbage can and busted clothesline?"

Thereupon the suit followed and is now before Judge W. J. Boerner, who must decide whether the air above a person's property belongs to him or not.

"But the law wouldn't have had a chance had I been killed," says Ballough. "I'm really being sued for living."

The plucky aviator is a test pilot for the Curtiss Northwest Airplane Company.

SURGEON CHATS WITH PATIENT AS HE OPERATES

(By The Associated Press.)
BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—Chatting with the man on an operating table, Dr. Hans Finster, of the University of Vienna, before a clinic of Buffalo surgeons, today removed the patient's stomach, performed a minor operation on the organ and replaced it. The operation required nearly two hours, the patient being fully conscious throughout.
Dr. Finster explained that special treatment of the stomach, had made unnecessary the use of an anesthetic.
Physicians examining the patient said he had suffered from the after effects of shock usual in major operations.

AMUSEMENTS.
"BLOSSOM TIME" MONDAY.
Popular Schubert Comic Opera Coming to The Majestic Theatre.

The Mess. Schubert will present the next new costliest famous comic opera, "Blossom Time," at the Majestic next Monday night, October 8. The book and lyrics are by Dorothy Donnelly, adapted from the original Viennese of N. M. Witner and H. Reichert. The music is from melodies of Franz Schubert himself and H. Bertel, adapted by Sigmond Romberg. "Blossom Time" deals with incidents in the life of the famous composer, Franz Schubert, and therefore his own music furnishes a large portion of the beauty of the score. Schubert is shown with a young woman and composing one of his famous pieces of music in his honor. In it, he tells his love. However, with the modesty of the artist, he is unable to sing it to her in person as he had planned, so he asks his friend, Baron Franz von Schreber, to sing in his stead. Schubert is a natural Don Juan and victimizes Schubert. Singing so beautifully and making love so perfectly, he wins the girl's affection.
Mr. Romberg utilizes the best known compositions of the famous Schubert, including "An Undiscovered Symphony," "The Serenade," "The Two Waltzes," "The Brook," "Why," "A Quintette for Strings," "Ave Maria," and "The Rosemaid Overture."

The mail orders have been coming into the box office very fast since the first announcement that "The hit of the ages" was coming and seats will be placed on sale for all performances at 10 a. m. today.

NEW YORK STOCKS

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Resumption of short covering operations imparted a strong tone to opening prices in today's stock market. Oils and rails led the rally. National Lead advanced nearly two points and Gulf States Steel, American Car and Foundry and DuPont each advanced one. New York Central yielded slightly in reflection of a large offering of equipment trust certificates.
A good inquiry was also noted for a number of the chemical, food and motor accessory shares. Profit taking soon made its appearance, however, "Big Four" dropping two points, Studebaker one and Baldwin, Reading and Baltimore and Ohio yielding fractionally. National Lead extended its gain to 23-4, Cuyamel Fruit advanced two and the Tobacco Products issues, Stromberg Carborator, Davison Chemical, Loce Wilkes Biscuit and Jones Brothers Tea, were among the many issues to gain a point or more. Foreign exchanges opened irregular.

NEGRO IS HELD CUTTING WHITE MAN

REIDSVILLE, N. C., Oct. 3.—Clarence Sympus, a negro is held in jail here, charged with having attacked and stabbed Edward White while the two were standing in front of a grocery store. Evidence obtained by the police is that the negro, as he approached the white man, drew a knife and cut him in the arm severing an artery. Prompt medical attention probably saved White's life as he would have bled to death on short notice. Sympus claimed that he was intoxicated and that he could not recall the affair. He was quickly arrested and placed in jail where he is awaiting a hearing.

Thompson Freed Of Charge Resumes His Chic Feminine Role

Acquitted of Charge of Shooting Richard Tesmer "Mystery Man" Swings on Table and Thanks Cheering Crowd—Woman-Like Shrank Towards Attorney When Foreman Pronounced Verdict.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Acquitted of the charge of having shot and killed Richard C. Tesmer, wealthy insurance broker, in a hold-up last summer, Fred G. Thompson last night resumed the feminine role that for fourteen years permitted him to go unchallenged as a woman and eleven years ago to marry Frank Carrick. Thompson, throughout trial in his actions, gestures and remarks, called the rough male garb of the jail prisoner, Thompson, as if startled by the verdict, woman-like, shrank towards his attorney as the jury foreman pronounced the words of acquittal.

He immediately recovered, however, and the temperament of the old days as a cabaret entertainer asserted itself as Thompson swung up on a table and requested nobody to go until he had thanked everyone. Cheers and cries of approval of the verdict were shrieked as men and women crushed about the "man-woman" to congratulate him.

The feminine instinct predominant, Thompson exclaimed, "My goodness I'll be glad to get some hair pins" as he was being led back to jail to be discharged. "Everytime a woman has visited the jail I've said 'please, madam, have you a hairpin to spare.'"

Carrick was in the cheering crowd in the courtroom, but Marie, the girl Thompson married because, he said, he sympathized with her, was not present.

Thompson, testifying in his own behalf, was clad in feminine waist and masculine trousers, with his long hair combed in knots over his ears.

He told the jury of a dual life as a boy in Chillicothe, Ohio and as a woman in Chicago.

He dressed as a boy in childhood, "but felt easier" in girl's clothes he told the jury and after he came to Chicago, wore woman's attire almost exclusively.

Sobbingly, he declared he "could not kill a dog or cat," when questioned whether he donned woman's clothing to commit murder.

Chief Justice Caverly dismissed him from the stand with the remark "that will be all lady."

Thompson was arrested shortly after Tesmer was killed. Mrs. Tesmer, who saw her husband shot, declared Thompson was the "smiling girl bandit" who fired while a male accomplice was robbing him and a prosecutor testified repeated the same story from the witness stand.

NEW YORK COTTON

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The cotton market was rather nervous and unsettled during today's trading. There was some covering at the opening prompted by the wet weather in the Southwest and there seemed to be just about as much trade buying to fix prices as there was hedge selling by the South. The market opened steady at an advance of 10 points to a decline of 3 points and early fluctuations were irregular but prices eased after the first few minutes under liquidation following reports that one of the New England mills was closing down all plants but its worsted department for an indefinite period beginning next Saturday. October sold off to 28.57 or three cents lower and later months showed net losses of 11 to 18 points with December declining to 28.24.

HYSTERIC GIRL IS CAUSE OF A NEAR PANIC

RICHMOND, Oct. 3.—Piercing shrieks caused a near-panic in the Mutual building about noon today. Elevators stopped, office doors opened and emptied their occupants into the halls of the building. The screams were finally located on the tenth floor and the corridors became crowded with an excited and curious throng as the screams became more frequent.

A call for a doctor, coming from the office of a railway supply company, located the source of the disturbance. Inquiry brought out the fact that one of the young women had been in ill health for several days, had been seized with an attack of hysterics.

With the arrival of the doctor, who administered a hypodermic, quiet was restored, but for some time the curious lingered about the halls before a normal condition returned.

"THE BAT" FRIDAY.

Greatest Mystery Play Will Be Presented at Majestic Tomorrow Night.

Local theatregoers are fortunate. Announcement has just been made by the management of the Majestic theatre that they have booked "The Bat" the greatest mystery play by Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Hopwood for their theatre on Friday, October 5th. The announcement alone is sufficient to insure a capacity audience for no one, at all familiar with the theatre needs to be told of the wonders and marvels of "The Bat" as an evening's entertainment—a play that has brought the same persons in to see it four, five and six times.

"The Bat" is one of those plays that is unforgettable. More than 2,000,000 persons have seen it since it began to run in New York City that covered more than two solid years. It is perfectly safe to assert that not one of those 2,000,000 have or ever will forget the thrills that were theirs during the performance of "The Bat."

Limitation, it is said, is the greatest form of flattery. If that be true, no play in the history of the American theatre has ever been quite so flattered.

"The Bat" will be presented here by Wagenhals and Kemper, its original producers and admittedly judges of what makes for success in the theatre. They have given it a cast and a production that reflects the greatest of credit to themselves.

Prices 50c to $2.00. Reserve seats now.

"Look Out, He's Heading For Us!"

Before the startled crew can back water the monster of the deep is upon them! A flip of its death-dealing tail, or "fluke" and both craft and its occupants are tossed high in the air. The boat falls back into the sea a battered wreck, the crew floundering about in shark infested waters!
